

M.Sc. Physiotherapy Admissions Requirements Humanities or Social Science Pre-requisite

Only subject areas identified by McMaster University's Faculties of Humanities or Social Sciences will be accepted. To meet this pre-requisite requirement, the course should also fall under the Faculty/Department of Humanities or Social Science at your home university. The course you choose to submit for this requirement should have one of the following course codes:

Humanities Courses:

- Art History
- Classics
- Communication Studies
- English
- French
- History
- Humanities
- Languages (e.g. Chinese, Russian, Spanish, etc.)
- Linguistics
- Multimedia
- Music
- Peace Studies
- Philosophy
- Studio Art
- Theatre & Film Studies
- Women's Studies

Social Science Courses:

- Anthropology
- Economics
- Geography
- Health, Aging and Society
 - McMaster University has a Department of Health, Aging and Society. Health courses completed under a Faculty of Science for example will not be accepted.
- Indigenous Studies
- Labour Studies
- Political Science
- Psychology
- Religious Studies
- Social Psychology
- Social Work
- Sociology

Notes:

- Courses submitted without one of the above course codes will not be accepted.
- Courses completed under another Faculty/Department such as Kinesiology will not be accepted.
- Please refer to the McMaster Faculty of Humanities and Social Science websites for more information.